VOLUME CVI.---NO. 121. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 23, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Who would exchange the merry noise of children at play, with the childless home where the clock tick can be heard hour after hour in the dull silence? But there are a great many who would like to people the silent house with the children that fate has refused them. Fate is often in this case only another word for ignorance.

Many a glad mother dates her happiness from the day she first began the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It often happens that with the cure of female weakness and the establishing of the delicate womanly organs in sound health, the way is opened for the joy of motherhood. "Favorite Prescription" is a specific for the chronic ailments peculiar to women. It cures them perfectly and permanently.

No other medicine can do for women so much as "Favorite Prescription." Do not therefore let any other medicine be palmed off on you as "just as good."

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium, cocaine or other narcotic. It is strictly a temperance medicine.

"I can truly say your medicine is a friend of mine," writes Mrs. Arthur Bratt, of Amherstburg, Ontario, Canada. "I am mother of four children and suffered greatly at times of birth of three. When three months along with the last one I began to think of trying some medicine to ease those terrible pains, and asked our doctor whether there was anything he could give me to lessen labor pains. He said there was nothing that could help me. I then thought I would write to Dr. Pierce. He advised me to take his 'Favorite Prescription.' I started to take it at fourth month. I was very weak, had heart trouble and would faint away two or three times a day. Our doctor could not help me and life was a drag. I would often say, oh, if I could only die in one of these spells; but I took five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and felt better every way. Got along well at the time of delivery. I had heard of pain less childbirth, and I thought it must be a good medicine that would help those pains, but I know now for myself, and can not tell it plain enough. Your 'Favorite Prescription' is the best medicine as we mothers know. I advise my friends to try it. Baby is now four months old and is a strong healthy boy."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets Cure Constipation.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size.

Peculiar Views of a Minister.

The Sunrise Club, of New York, had its last meeting of the season last night, and attempted to settle the question of right and wrong, good and evil. It was a symposium of minds that dwell on the heights, an interchange of views from eyes which look toward the dawn. Quite the most remarkable views of the evening were those expressed by the Rev. Hugh O. Pentrost. He said in part:

"The happiest moment of my life was when I found that I'd eliminated my conscience, root and branch, and had no moral sense whatever. Good and evil are all gammon and spinach to me. From the martyr at the stake to the most objective criminal on the gallows, we are all doing the things we do because it is impossible for us to do anything else. If you would get rid of conscience and all that tommyrot, you would have the solution to every problem in life. I've no fear of God or of the devil. I have no desire to go to heaven and no dread of going to hell. Every temptation I have in the world I yield to, every one. If I wanted to get drunk, I'd get drunk. If I wanted to beat my wife, I'd beat her. If I don't it's because I would rather not. It's more comfortable. Shall I blame another man who drinks and beats his wife because it gives him joy? Character—there's no such thing as character. Those persons have good characters to me who have those desire which I consider beautiful desires, and act on them."

Edwin C. Walker rebuked Mr. Pentrost for declaring before the Liberal Club that he is giving his life to right the world's wrongs, and then getting up and unloading such views.

Ministers March Upon Mayor.

One hundred ministers, marching upon the city hall at Philadelphia and praying and exhorting Mayor Weaver to stiffen up his nerve, forced from Philadelphia's chief executive yesterday his first straightforward declaration against the leasing of the gas works to the United Gas Improvement Company.

They were Methodist ministers, and they had been holding their regular weekly meeting. Somebody used the phrase "practical religion," then a minister jumped up and proposed the march upon the mayor. In a minute everybody else was seconding it. So two by two up Arch street to Broad street went the ministers. They marched up into the city hall and made straight for Mayor Weaver's office. Some one had seen them first and the mayor was waiting for them.

Immediately some threescore ministers fell upon their knees, while their speaking committee addressed his honor. Every now and then a prayer would be audible during pauses of the spokesman's exhortation. Ministers who had abused the mayor during the great prayer of a month ago called him "the city savior." Then the mayor raised his hands.

"Oh, ministers," he said, "within twenty-four hours after the passage of the gas bill by councils, I made up my mind what I would do. No living soul knows what I propose to do, but I shall carry out my purpose to the end.

"I have worked out my own methods, and they will develop within three or four days. I will prevent this great iniquity as far as it's in my power. The lease will not become law."

The ministers seemed quite overpowered at this, but afterward, when they heard the mayor had taken lunch with Leader Durham, some of them were not so sure.

Serenaders Shot.

Between the hours of midnight and daylight on Sunday morning, a gang of thirteen Randolph-Macon College students, at Bedford City, were fired on with shotguns by persons hidden inside the building of Jeter Institue, a school for girls. It is understood that meetings had been going on for months between the students of the two institutions in violation of the orders of the faculties of both schools. Prof. Parker, president of the girls' school, had made, it is alleged, repeated complaints regarding the action of the Randolph-Macon boys.

Sunday morning a gang of thirteen boys armed with tin horns, cow bells tin cans, and other rattle-traps started a racket in the way of a farce serenade when they were met with a warm reception in the way of several volleys from shot-guns loaded with bird shot. It is thought that all of them were more or less wounded, but five were so seriously peppered that it became necessary to call in physicians. One young man was seriously shot in the face, and the others received the fire of the teachers of the girls' school in their backs.

Prof. Parker admitted yesterday the shots were fired from his school building, but would not incriminate any one individually. The details of the story were substantiated in every particular yesterday evening by Prof. Parker and the chief of police of Bedford City, but neither would divulge the names of the students who were injured. The Randolph-Macon authorities also refused to divulge any names.

Prof. Parker stated that the boys returned the fire of the teachers, but would not admit that any of his teachers were injured.

Desperate Struggle of a Murderer.

A man named Agnar, under sentence of death for murder, made a desperate fight for life Saturday at the Bilbao, Spain, prison, as he was about to be executed. Having rendered his warder senseless by a blow from a bottle, he rushed out into the corridor, followed by 10 other convicts, and a patrol of soldiers had to come to the rescue of the warders and restore order. Agnar was dragged to the scaffold by four soldiers, one of whom he kick in the face, blinding him in one eye. He tore away the noose after it had been adjusted and defied the executioner to hang him. He was at length overpowered by the warders, who readjusted the noose and drew the bolt in spite of his determined struggle.

Secret of Lost Art Found.

John A. Vaughan, an expert metallurgist, of Newark, N. J., says the Evening News of that city, after twenty years of experiment claims to have discovered the lost art of tempering copper. He showed a reporter a piece of trolley wire, flattened to a blade at one end, which would cut wood like a steel blade, without turning its edge. He claims to have shaved himself with a tempered copper razor.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 23, 1905.

As had been anticipated, France has incurred the enmity of Japan by alleged breach of neutrality, and members of the French Chamber of Deputies are apprehensive of the Mongolians, who, it is believed, have designs upon Indo-China. From appearances the French are not disposed to enter into a conflict with Japan for many reasons, for even should the latter nation be worsted it would be at the cost of millions of dollars as well as the sacrifice of innumerable lives; and it would not be Japan solely with which France would have to deal, but probably the entire Chinese empire would appear as allies of the Mikado. About twenty years ago there was trouble between China and France concerning Cochin China, and for a time it looked as though the French would be compelled to go to war in order to carry out their policy. The Chinese seemed equally determined to maintain their rights, and were secretly preparing for a conflict. About this time, it will be remembered, Col. John S. Mosby was U. S. Consul at Hong Kong, and while acting in that capacity he was approached by an agent of the celestial empire and offered a high commission in the Chinese army. The war was in some way averted, or, more properly, deferred. The French have long been an eyesore to the natives of the far East, as have also the Germans and the English, and should the Japanese star continue in the ascendant and the Russians be compelled to throw up the sponge, a Mongolian confederacy is sure to follow. It will take but a few years to elevate the Chinese to the present military footing of the Japanese when the celestials will be in a position to defend themselves against squatters. The most serious phase at present, however, is the likelihood of the Russian navy making a rendezvous in Luzon. This country has but few vessels in that part of the world and is in no condition to enforce neutrality, should Admiral Rojestvensky attempt to use one of the islands for a base.

And now it appears that the present republican administration has been building ships in China to be used in Manila, the Chinamen having been required to hold their peace while the work was in progress lest the knowledge of what was going on would reach the ears of the amalgamations in this country who open some of their barrels of money during presidential campaigns. This procedure needs no comment; it is the most incontrovertible object-lesson that was ever placed before the people of this country. When Spain unloaded the Philippines upon the United States we were told that the islands were to enrich this country to an inconceivable extent. Spain pocketed twenty millions of dollars belonging to the tax-payers of the United States and a tremendous drain upon the latter has been going on ever since in order to crush the natives and to place the islands in a sanitary condition. One of the delusions in the United States was that Manila cigars were to be as plentiful here as stogies, Manila rope would supersede cheaper varieties and hard and costly woods were to bring untold wealth to the United States. That all such dreams have been proven illusive must be apparent. Now it seems that it is necessary for the United States to spend money in China for steamships to be used in these possessions, when we were told that the demands of the Philippines would be so extensive that shipyards and factories in this country would be kept in operation continually.

The teamsters' strike in Chicago began on April 6. On that day seventy-one teamsters employed by Montgomery Ward & Co. were called out to support a strike of seventeen garment workers who had been out since November 19, 1904. As employers thereafter discharged teamsters because of refusal to deliver goods to strike-bound houses the strike spread until 3,772 teamsters were on strike against a score of department stores. Riots and assaults resulted in the death of ten persons and the injuring of 500 others. Twenty-three hundred policemen and 500 deputy sheriffs were detailed by city and county for duty. The city spent $75,000 for extra policemen while $50,000 was expended by the county for deputies. Teamsters have lost in wages $500,000. The unions have been assessed $250,000. Employers estimate the shrinkage in business and railroad earnings and other losses at nearly $5,000,000 and, so far as known, no one has made a cent. Other results of the strike were destitution among families of strikers and the addition by several thousand persons to the criminal population of Chicago. No wonder that sensible working men declare that strikes do not pay.

A dispatch from Gloucester, N. J., says the majority of the shad fishermen who are operating nets in that section of the Delaware river will retire for the season, and many for all time, this week. The season does not usually close until the 10th of June, but the catch of shad this week has been so small that the fishermen have become disgusted. Fishermen say that it is the poorest season on record, The experince of the Delaware river fishermen is similar to that of the Potomac fishermen; indeed shad seem to be becoming scarcer each year, notwithstanding the artificial hatching of these fish which is kept up at a great expense.

It should not be forgotten that at the next election magistrates and constables for each of the four wards of the city are to be chosen. These are very important offices and the best men should be elected to fill them.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., May 23.

The Southern Industrial Parliament opened its three days' session here this morning with representatives from every State in attendance. Henry B. F. Macfarland, commissioner of the District of Columbia, welcomed the delegates. Gov. Robt. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, was elected permanent chairman and made an address. At the close of the governor's address, the parliament took a recess for luncheon. The afternoon session was devoted to agriculture, Willett N. Hays, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, E. J. Watson, Commissioner of Agriculture for North Carolina, M. V. Richards, general agent of the Southern Railway and Robert D. Gates, of the L. & N. Railroad, John W. Rosaman, of Tennessee, Dr. Chas. A. Cary, of the Alabama Agricultural College and W. J. Spillman, of the Department of Agriculture were the speakers.

Among those who attended the Southern Industrial Parliament here today were Messrs. M. B. Harlow, C. H. Yohe and J. W. May, of Alexandria.

The Virginia delegation, attending the Southern Industrial Parliament, now in session in Washington, today appointed the following Alexandrians on the different committees. Manufactures, M. B. Harlow, chairman; Agriculture, Jno. W. May, chairman; Immigration, Harry Yohe, chairman; and also secretary of the delegation.

It is rumored here that the transfer agreed upon yesterday of Capt. J. E. B. Stuart from marshal of the Eastern District of Virginia to the collectorship of the port of Newport News, was made for the good of the service. It is said that Capt. Stuart made a very poor marshal, while Capt. Morgan Treat, whom he succeeded and who will succeed him, was a most capable and efficient officer. It is said also that Capt. J. S. Wise is much disappointed at this turn of affairs, as he was anxious his relative, Mr. Peachey, should be appointed collector at Newport News. Mr. Peachey does not get anything.

It is understood here that in a recent conversation between the President and a number of Virginia republicans the former said that while he was very fond of Capt. John S. Wise he wished the captain would keep out of Virginia politics, as he is not now a resident of Virginia.

August W. Machen, former Superintendent of free delivery of the Postoffice Department, this morning entered a plea of guilty to the indictment in which he was charged with conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the sale of letter carriers' supplies to the Postoffice Department, in conjunction with George E. Lorenz, of Toledo, Ohio, and Wm. G. Crawford, of Washington. In making his plea, Machen delivered a statement to Justice Wright in which he declared that he exercised no influence of any kind over the committee which, after inspecting the competitive bids, purchased the materials on which the indictment is based. But, he admitted, he had been interested in the profits of the contract and had been advised by counsel that this situation made him "technically guilty" of the offense charged. He stated that he had found himself practically defenseless, and while realizing the embarrassing position in which he was placed, and that of his wife, children and parents, he would nevertheless throw himself on the mercy of the court and plead guilty. Justice Wright announced that in view of the saving of expense and time to the government in further prosecution he would make the sentence as light as would be consistent with the gravity of the offense. He thereupon sentenced Machen to two years imprisonment in the Moundsville, West Virginia, penitentiary, the time to commence at the conclusion of the two years' sentence Machen is now serving on previous conviction. Prior to this, William G. Crawford made a plea of not guilty and Machen in his statement requested that nothing which he might say would prejudice the other defendants. It is understood that this plea of Machen's will practically end the prosecution against him and at the end of the four years' service in the penitentiary he will become a free man, and the other twelve indictments under which he is held will be quashed. Mr. Morgan H. Beach, District Attorney, proceeded to outline the case against the defendant Crawford. He stated in his remarks to the court that Crawford was indicted by the grand jury for having figured in transactions between the Postal Lock and Device Co., Machen and Lorenz, in which the three named defendants divided a profit on the sale of letter carrier satchels and straps. The empanelling of a jury will occupy the greater part of the day. Former Secretary of the Treasury J. J. Carlisle and A. S. Worthington are representing W. G. Crawford.

A jury was chosen this afternoon in the Crawford case. District Attorney Beach presented the case to the jury this afternoon. He told of the relations existing between the three defendants, described the transactions between Crawford, Machen and Lorenz and gave a general resume of the entire Postoffice case.

Senator Hopkins, of Illinois, had a talk with the President this morning and emerged from his office an ardent advocate of the purchase-abroad principle advocated by the administration for the Panama canal. "There will not be more than 5 per cent. of the supplies for the canal bought in foreign markets," said Senator Hopkins, "but whenever it is found that they can be purchased cheaper in foreign markets, I think they ought to be secured there. This canal is to be a great international project. The workmen who will dig the ditch will practically be all foreigners; it will be used by more foreign ships than by those that fly the stars and stripes; the principle of protection will not be involved at all in the buying of supplies outside of the home markets, and do not think for a moment that the matter will ever come up before Congress. It will never be dignified by consideration by either the Senate or the House. I agree with the President in his views and I believe the American people will agree with him."

Richard Harding Davis, a newspaper correspondent who has written about Venezuelan affairs, the asphalt scandal, and the connection, real or alleged of Mr. Loomis and Mr. Bowen therewith, called at the War Department today at the request of Secretary Taft and told him where he got the information upon which he based his articles. His testimony which is to form a part of the documentary evidence in the Loomis-Bowen controversy, was said by Secretary Taft to have been unimportant. It is understood that Mr. Davis told the Secretary that while Mr. Bowen had given him some of the information regarding the charges reflecting upon Mr. Loomis he had also got the same information from other sources.

The new Brazilian Ambassador, Dr. Jacquin Joaquim Aurelio Nabuco de Araujo, called at the State Department this morning and in an interview with Assistant Secretary Loomis it was arranged that he should present his credentials to the President at the White House tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Senor Ferreira, the retiring Brazilian Minister will present his letters of recall to the President tomorrow morning. Dr. Nabuco is the first Ambassador to be sent to this country from Brazil the rank of the mission here having just been elevated.

Jacob I. Crabill has been appointed postmaster at Bloom, Frederick county, Va., and Reuben E. Herr at Limeton, Warren county, Va.

The Senate committee on interstate commerce has practically concluded its hearings on the subject of railroad rate legislation. At an executive session today, it was decided to end the hearings this afternoon, if possible. It is believed that the committee will refuse to endorse the proposition to confer the rate making power on the Interstate Commerce Commission, but will advise legislation giving the federal courts the right to declare what rates are unreasonable in specific instances.

It is said here that the President is just now interested principally in getting Mr. Morton out of the Cabinet without causing any greater disturbance in the department than is absolutely necessary. Mr. Morton's announcement that he will retire July 1, instead of September 1, as he had originally intended, was due to President Roosevelt. Having ascertained that Mr. Morton is almost certain to be involved as a defendant in the prosecution of the Aitcheson, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, the President is anxious that he should sever his connection with the government with the least possible delay.

Secretary of War Taft will leave this afternoon for Colmubus, O., where he will preside tomorrow as temporary chairman of the republican State convention and make the keynote speech for this fall's campaign. The Secretary expects to be absent from Washington about a week.

An automobile containing several police chiefs had a thrilling experience yesterday evening, the machine having become uncontrollable. The occupants were thrown out, but neither was seriously hurt. The party was on the outskirts of the city when the accident occurred. They are attending the national convention of chiefs.

The laboring classes are fleeing from Spain as fast as they can secure sufficient money for their passage to foreign countries. More than 5,000 are now awaiting transportation from Malaga, according to a report received by the State Department from Commercial Agent Price, at Jeres de la Fronters, Spain, and the exodus is alarming the authorities and capitalists. Mr. Price says that a few days before he wrote his report 4,000 workmen, mostly young men, departed from Valencia and Tarragona for Brazil and Argentina. There are 75,000,000 acres of uncultivated arrable land in Spain and the scarcity of laborers to work the farms is daily growing more and more apparent. The drought which has retarded farm operations this summer in Spain, added to the high taxes, has made the cost of living higher than the ordinary laborer can pay and emigration is the only escape from starvation.

Mrs. Dominic Murphy, wife of the newly appointed Consul-General to Bordeaux, is the happiest woman in Washington. She is also firmly convinced of the efficacy of prayer and to the end of her days will declare that nothing but the interposition of Providence saved her husband and herself from death by yellow fever. Mr. Murphy was until yesterday afternoon Secretary of the Panama Canal Commission and was in the slough of despond because he had been ordered to go to the isthmus and remain there with his clerical force while the big ditch was being constructed "I'll get yellow fever just as sure as I step foot on the Isthmus. I've got a happy little home in Washington and have just been married—my wife hates to go worse then I do, if that's possible, and I've half a motion to throw up my job." But he did't. The necessity of providing for his bride drove him remorselessly on and all preparations were made for the Secretary's sailing today. Mrs. Murphy refused to take any hand in the proceeding. Instead, Mrs. Murphy spent most of her time at the church offering up prayers for something to happen that would prevent the journey to that fever stricken zone. Apparently the prayers were answered. On Saturday Judge Tourgee, Consul General to Bordeaux, suddenly died. Two days afterwards Mr. Murphy was appointed to the vacancy. A new secretary will be appoined to serve on the isthmus.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucuous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

The opposition in the British House of Commons last night refused to hear Colonial Secretary Lyttleton reply to charges made that Premier Balfour had violated the pledge he made in his Edinburgh speech concerning the fiscal question. The disorder was so great that the Speaker had to adjourn the House.

Clay Grubb and Clarence Thompson, the former a distiller, of Davidson county, N. C., who was acquitted last Saturday of the murder of his brother-in-law, O. L. Davis, and the latter a prominent witness in the recent trial, were shot from ambush and critically wounded near Churchland, five miles east of Saulsbury yesterday.

One of the most brilliant weddings of the year was that celebrated yesterday at St. Peter's Church, Westchester, New York, when Miss Elsie Waterbury, a famous young beauty, was married to Gouverneur Morris, writer and descendant of one of the oldest and most aristocratic families of the country. Bishop Potter performed the marriage ceremony before a distinguished throng of society people.

The dangers that lurk in decayed teeth were strikingly shown last Friday, when Louis Brien, of Philadelphia, died from lockjaw believed to have been caused by germs that found lodgment in his defective teeth. We was tearing away old boards, handling old nails and going into cellar and attic, and it is thought that the germs disturbed in this work got their revenge for being disquieted by breaking into the castle of the man's body through the only weak place in it—the neglected teeth.

President Roosevelt told one of his visitors at the White House yesterday that there had been no change in his intention to call an extra session of Congress on October 16 to deal primarily with railway rate legislation. While that subject will be the principal reason for the extra session, he said he would touch upon the tariff question in his message to the special session. The administration it is said is standing pat against the "standpatters" in its policy of purchasing supplies for the Panama canal in the open market and will buy abroad whenever it is most advantageous to do so and admit these supplies into the canal zone entirely free of duty.

Virginia News.

The trial of Reynolds Carlisle, charged with the murder of John D. Krombling, was begun at Berryville yesterday.

Mayor B. D. Cooke has resigned as mayor of Colonial Beach because the Town Council refused to increase his salary for the summer months.

State Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson, of the democratic committee, says the committee will probably assemble before June 15 to fix a date for the State primary.

Before the Senate committee on interstate commerce, whose investigation of railroad rates has almost drawn to a close, a delegation of eight citizens of Danville testified in favor of rate legislation at yesterday's session of the committee.

Mr. Milton E. Rose, a merchant of Stafford county and postmaster at Ruby, was drowned Sunday while bathing in Aquia creek, near Coal Landing. He was with two companions, and it is supposed that he was taken with cramps, as, after diving several times, he failed to come up the last time.

In Nansemond Circuit Court yesterday it was decided that a gambling debt is not collectible. William J. Rawles, who runs a clubhouse in Norfolk, brought action to recover $500 from Charles Keller, of Suffolk. Keller had given a check for that amount to Rawles to cover losses at cards, but stopped payment before it reached the bank on which it was drawn.

The will of Major E. T. D. Myers, was probated in Richmond yesterday. The value of the estate is $300,000. He made a few small bequests, and then set $25,000 to be placed in trust, the income from which is to be paid to his sister, Mrs. Edward Cohen, provided she decides she needs it; she to be the sole judge in this respect. If she does not accept it, it is to be paid to the residuary legatees. The estate otherwise goes to his three children—Lilburn T. Myers, E. T. D. Myers, jr., and Mrs. Preston.

A large audience filled the courthouse at Berryville yesterday to hear Hon. Claude A. Swanson, of Pittsylvania county, deliver the first public speech of the campaign in Clarke county. During a speech which lasted an hour and a half he told of his ambition to be governor, outlined his intentions regarding the public schools, public roads and railway rates. This was Mr. Swanson's first visit to Clarke county, he having failed to appear here four years ago during the campaign between himself and Hon. A. J. Montague. Mr. Swanson left on the evening train for Washington.

Today's Telegraphic News

War in the East.

St. Petersburg, May 23.—A dispatch received from Gunchuling, Manchuria, dated May 22, reports that several skirmishes of a serious nature occurred on Sunday. The Russian centre was the scene of the fighting and the Russians were victorious, driving the Japanese to the south. The enemy in their flight abandoned a convoy with large forage stores. The reports indicate that the Russians assumed the offensive in the engagements and it is believed here that General Linevitch has determined not to allow the Japanese to do all the attacking in the impending battle. The attack on Sunday is regarded as only the first step of the Russian commander in carrying out this plan of action.

A dispatch received today from the front says that General Kaulbars, who has been in command of the second Manchurian army, is ill and will give up his command and return to Russia.

An announcement made today says that Admiral Parengo has been appointed to the command of the fourth Baltic fleet. This is the squadron now being prepared to sail to the far East. Orders were issued to the commanders of all the vessels, which will make up the fleet, to be prepared to sail on June 14.

Yokohama, May 23.—The steamer Lincluden which was captured several days ago by the Japanese has been released. The Lincluden was seized by the Japanese south of Cora, on May 15. The Central News, on the day following the report of the vessel's capture, announced that the Lincluden was a British steamer, which was carrying produce to Japan. This probably accounts for her release.

St. Petersburg, May 23.—In a dispatch received today General Linievitch reports that the Russians have occupied Shahetse. A detachment consisting of the force of General Tribukski forced the Japanese to evacuate Shintuff. The detachment marched further south and set fire to Nanchenii. At Armagon, the detachmant had an encounter with the enemy. The outcome of the battle is not stated.

Tokio, May 23.—A report from the headquarters received at noon today, says that the Japanese rear guards have been in frequent conflct with the Russian cavalry, which detoured in the direction of Fakomen, from the right bank of the Liao river, and in these encounters, the Japanese have invariable been successful.

On May 20, the Russians camped at Siaotatsu, after their failure to drive the Japanese out of Tafangshem, and the following day retreated to the right bank of the Malien river.

The Japanese in the meantime, had defeated the Russians in a few camps which remained on the left side of Malien river, and the enemy retreated to the north in disorder.

Situation in Chicago.

Chicago, May 23.—The situation in the teamsters' strike this morniug is paradoxical. Threats of an extension of the struggle that will tie up the building industry, are expected to be carried out today. Leaders of both sides, on the other hand, gave out statements after conferences lasting nearly all night that would indicate a probability of peace. General agents of the railroad express companies still hold the balance of power. Upon them rests the responsibility, according to the labor leaders, of ending or continuing the strike. They say they are absolutely unyielding in their determination to stick by the men who took the places of those employes who abandoned them to go on a sympathetic strike. The situation, as it affects the lumber industry is doubly critical. A tie-up will mean a scarcity of material for the building trades and enforced idleness for thousands of workers outside of the teamsters' strike zone. But the lumbermen intend to go ahead with deliveries and back of them in their determination stands the Employers' Association, with its army of strike breakers, who are being massed in constantly increasing hundreds. The need of protection for the new strike breakers presents the crisis that troops may have to meet. Fearing that the resolutions introduced at Sunday's meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor, may revive the strike fever in the schools, the Board of Education will this morning resort to stringent methods to prevent further demonstrations. All pupils attempting to induce other pupils to boycott the public schools are to be arrested. All adults seeking to incite the trouble at the schools are to be locked up. All persons, young or adult, attempting to interfere with school children on their way to and from school, are to be arrested.

More lumber wagon drivers quit work today. Sixteen firms are affected at the conclusion of the conference at the City Hall Mayor Dunn, announced that the matter of a settlement was still in abeyance; that the express companies still were unwilling to make any concession. Before the close of the conference, however, arrangements were made for another meeting which will be held this afternoon.

Judge Kohlsaat, in the Federal Circuit Court, today, issued an injunction restraining the Goodrich Transportation Company from refusing to accept goods consigned to Montgomery, Ward & Co., and other "struck" houses in Chicago.

Explosion in a Hotel.

New York, May 23.—A thorough investigation into the explosion in the sub-celler of the Hotel Manhattan, Forty-second street and Madison avenue, in which one man was killed, three severely scalded, two slightly injured, and four hundred guests were thrown into a panic, shows that the trouble was due to the bursting of a big steam pipe. This pipe was in the third sub-cellar, and it is said there was some defect in it. The explosion occurred shortly after ten o'clock last night, at the time when the parlors, corridors, and palm rooms were crowded. Many of the guests had retired to their rooms. The force of the explosion shook the hotel from cellar to roof, and was followed by total darkness, as every light in the hotel was snuffed out. Then came the hissing of steam which burst from the cellars on the Madison avenue side of the building. Many persons ran from their rooms but the excitement was soon quieted, as the guests realized there was no real danger.

Merchant Trust Company Closes.

New York, May 23.—State Bank Examiner Judson took charge of the Merchants' Trust Company at 10 o'clock this morning. It was stated by Samuel Untermyer, of counsel for the Merchants' Trust Company, soon after the doors of the institution had been closed, that the trouble would probably prove only temporary. "I think the company will be able to pull through all right," he said. The main office of the company is at 346 Broadway. It has a branch office at 300 west 59th street. On December 23, 1904, the examiners statement showed that the company had $611,053 in cash, and large deposits and loans. The total assets allowed were $4,103,343 and the liabilities were put at $2,959,888. The company was organized in 1899, by Edward Langdon, who was then president of the Central National Bank: Some years ago the prosperity of the company was at low ebb and Helen Gould and other members of the Gould family went to its rescue. Dr. John H. Mumm, who was Jay Gould physician, remains a director. The trust company is trustee of a $4,000,000 consolidated mortgage of the property of the Hudson Valley Railroad Company which is a consolidation of trolley lines around Albany, Troy, Saratoga, and Lake George. The concern has been the subject of rumors in Wall street for some time. It was reported that there had been some bad investments and that as a consequence there were some securities in its strong boxes of little or no value.

Douglas Robinson, a brother-in-law of President Roosevelt has been appointed receiver of the Merchants' Trust Co. The law does not require the filing of abond by the trust company.

Albany, N. Y., May 23.—Banking Superintendent Kilburn today rendered an opinion that he had come to the conclusion that it is inexpedient for the Merchants' Trust Company of 345 Broadway, New York, to longer continue business, and he has therefore reported to that effect to Attorney General Mayer for the latter official to take action. Superintendent Kilburn reports "that in the circumstance a receiver can handle the matter better than the trust company."

Fear Another Massacre.

St. Petersburg, May 23.—Jewish residents of Jitomir province of Volhynia, the scene of the recent massacres of Jews, are fearful that another armed demostration against them is being planned. Jews in the city are making elaborate preparations for their defence in case another attack is made. Evidence is being brought to light which show that the authorities of Jitomir not only knew of the arrangements for the recent massacre, but that the details of the killing were arranged by Police Commissioner Kuyaroff. The police commissioner, it is claimed, offered a reward of 30 copecks for every dead Jew. By the irony of fate, however, Kuyaroff, who thus did so much to bring about the massacre, with its awful results, was himself slain in the riots. A reign of terror is said to exist at Jitomir at present. A number of Jewesses are reported to have been driven insane by brooding over the former outrages and by the dread of a new outbreak. The effect of the massacre has been to drive the Jews to join the revolutionary movement, and they are assisting in the propaganda of the agitators. A subscription fund has been started by Jews to which 8,000 roubles have been subscribed for the purpose of establishing a scholarship at Kieff University in memory of a christian student named Blinoff, who lost his life while defending a number of Jews during the recent troubles.

Disorders in Spain.

Madrid, May 23.—Disorders of a very serious nature broke out yesterday in Barcaldo, which is located near the town of Bilbao, as the result of the expulsion of a number of workmen from their homes. The evicted men were joined by a large crowd of their friends, together with a number of women. They pillaged houses in the neighborhood, throwing the furniture into the streets and destroying a great deal of property. Some of the furniture was piled on the tracks of the tramways blocking the way of cars and suspending traffic. The rioters then made the round of factories, workshops, and the dock yards compelling the employes at these places to quit work. It is feared there may be a renewal of the disturbances today.

Smallpox in Lisbon.

Libson, May 23.—A sudden outbreak of smallpox has been discovered to the great alarm of the authorities as well as the citizens generally. It is feared that a general epidemic may result and preparations are being made to fight the disease. Nineteen cases of the disease were found yesterday and the patients were at once removed to hospitals. The disease is spreading especially in the poorer quarters of the city where sanitary conditions are bad, and grave fears are entertained that many deaths will result before the epidemic can be checked.

Professor Harper's Condition.

Chicago, May 23.—A turn for the worse in Prof. Harper's condition was feared by the university students yesterday when they were requested by members of the Harper family to keep the noise of a student celebration as far as possible from the residence. The report immediately spread among the students that Dr. Harper had suffered a serious relapse. Dr. Frank Billings, who is in charge of Dr. Harper, said that he knew of no change in the patient's condition.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes. "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Death of Mrs. Livermore.

Melrose, Mass., May 23.—Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, the well-known author and lecturer, died this morning at her home here. She had been ill with bronchitis but a short time. Last night the crisis in her illness passed and the physician thought she had a fighting chance for her life, but she had a relapse early this morning, and passed away about 8 o'clock.

Three Generations in one Grave.

Pottsville, Pa., May 23.—The unusual spectacle of three generations of one family being laid in one gaave was witnessed at New Philadelphia yesterday, the corpses being those of Enoch Balulis, his son and little grandchild. Enoch was killed by an explosion of dynamite, and his sudden death hastened that of the others, who were ill.

The eight annual convention of the Federation of American Zionists will be held in Philadelphia, from June 16 to June 20, inclusive at Touro Hall.

E. W. Nash, president of the American Smelting and Refining Company, suffered a stroke of paralysis at Omaha, Neb., this morning and is in a critical condition.

A washout on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad caused the wreck of the Dixie Flyer, a St. Louis train, east of McKenzie, Tenn., today. The train was derailed, injuring several, some of whom may die. All traffic is delayed.

Fire destroyed the main building of the Merritt and Company, manufacturers of expanded metal goods, at Front and Arch streets, Camden, N. J., this morning, doing damage estimated at $40,000. The cause of the fire was spontaneous combustion. The loss is covered by insurance.

A wireless dispatch to New York from the steamer Kron Prinz Wilhelm bound for New York, reports Lord Brassey's Sunbeam yesterday, 818 miles east of Sandy Hook. The Sunbeam was doing much better than expected and was ninety miles east of the point where the Atlantic was reported forty-four hours before.

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, this morning asked for and was handed the resignations of David Smyth, director of public safety, and Peter Costello, director of public works. This is proof positive of a complete break with the republican machine and sounds death knell of gas lease. Later today the mayor suspended from office Arthur R. H. Morrow, assistant director of the department of supplies, and there are rumors of other heads which will drop into the basket.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Princess Natalie, the youngest daughter of the Grand Duke Constantine, died in St. Petersburg today of meningitis.

At a meeting of the council of ministers in Paris today M. Delcasse, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, announced that President Roosevelt has accepted the invitation extended by the French government to send a military mission to the next general military manouevres to be held by France.

Advices from St. Petersburg say that it has been definitely decided to create the Zemstvos council as representative assembly in response to the demands which have been made by the people for a voiced government. The decisions of the council, however, will not be binding upon the government.

Killed by a Mob.

Robert Shaw, colored, was killed by a mob last night, near Waitman, Ky., as he leaped from his burning house, which had been fired by the crowd. A hundred shots were fired at him and his body was riddled with bullets.

Shaw, supposedly insane, had killed Deputy Sheriff W. C. Brown and wounded seven other men. The body of the dead man lay all the afternoon in front of Shaw's house, and the negro continued to defy officers who were seeking to arrest him.

On Sunday afternoon Shaw was terrorizing the community around Waitman, and an appeal was sent to Owensboro for help. A posse was at once formed, but as soon as they approached Shaw's house he opened fire.

Marshal Watson was shot in the face, and Deputy Marshal John Jackson was shot in the back. Others wounded at that time were Dr. G. H. Plitt, who was shot in the head; a boy named Howard, and a boy named Pelly, both of whom were shot in the legs.

Yesterday a posse, headed by Sheriff Kelly, went from Lewisport to Waitman, and found Shaw sitting on his front porch. Shaw quickly barricaded himself in his house. The posse tried to storm the house, but the negro opened fire, wounding James Ford and John Robinson. He apparently had only small shot, which saved the lives of those he shot at. Shaw was shot at twice. He had two revolvers, but announced that he would save them for work at close range. A great crowd gathered, but kept at a safe distance.

Yesterday afternoon Will C. Brown, a deputy sheriff of Hancock county, volunteered to go to the house and take Shaw. When within fifteen feet of the place Shaw fired, blowing Brown's head completely off.

Last night a great crowd gathered and finally succeeded in killing the negro.

To Attend Military School.

Lieut. J. P. Gay, of Franklin, of the Seventy-first Virginia Regiment, is the first officer of Virginia to accept the offer of an education at a United States military school. He has notified Col. A. M. Higgins here that he desires to accept the offer of the Government for training of one year at one of the stations, with the allowance of $60 a month for expenses, which accompanies the offer. Colonel Higgins has advised Governor Montague, and Adjutant Wright has gone to Franklin to make the final arrangements. It is understood that Lieutnant Gay will be assigned to the school at Fort Monroe.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving remembrance of my darling boy, LOUIS EDWARD PEVERILL, who departed this life May 23, 1904—one year ago today.

I miss him, oh, how sadly.

By His "AUNTIE."

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 23, 1905.

Local Matters.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:40 and sets 7:13. High water at 11:36 a. m. and 11:54 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and continued cool tonight and Wednesday; fresh northerly winds.

River Notes.

The U. S. supply steamer Maple, which anchored off this city Saturday, left yesterday evening.

The schooner Grover Cleveland, with lumber from H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Colonial Beach.

The schooner Stonewall is being loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., for the lower Potomac.

The schooner Lily of the West is being loaded with lumber by Smoot & Co., for Fort Hunt.

The schooner Farmers' Friend is loading railroad ties at Piscataway for Indian Head.

The new steamer Pocahontas, which is to run excursions to Colonial Beach and River View during the summer months, will arrive here from Richmond Friday next, and will go on her route Saturday evening. A crew will be sent to bring the steamer here from Richmond.

As a result of the General Slocum horror at New York last summer, in which nearly a thousand persons lost their lives, and following upon the recent changes in the steamboat inspection laws, the United States local inspectors of steam vessels are exercising great vigilance in the inspection of the life preservers with which all passenger-carrying vessels of the Potomac are equipped.

The Electric Railway.

The double-tracking of the electric railway between Alexandria and Washington is in an advanced stage, the work having been extended south from St. Asaph as far as Braddock. Should the present favorable weather continue a few days longer the additional track will have reached Spring Park. The road will soon be double-tracked between St. Asaph and Four-mile run. This is but a short distance, and after the proper "fill" shall have been made the rails will be laid. The road has for some time been double-tracked from Four-mile run to Arlington Junction. It is said by officials that the entire road will be double tracked by the 1st proximo. The company has three of its new motors in service and the fourth is now being wired and fitted out at Four Mile Run. It will go into commission this week. With the double-track completed and the new cars in service, the railway company will increase the number of trains between this city and Washington and the new schedule is now being arranged. These additional trains will be put in service early in the coming month.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Jones, colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with stealing a pair of shoes from Joseph Heyman, was sent to jail for 60 days.

Wilford Jones, arrested by Officer Bell for disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Mary Williams, colored, arrested by Officers Mayhugh and Patterson charged with disorderly conduct, had her case continued.

Injured by Torpedo.

George, the little son of Mr. F. D. Carey, living at the southwest corner of Wolfe and Lee streets, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by the explosion of a railroad torpedo which the boy says he found. He struck it with a brick which caused an explosion, and a fragment of the torpedo struck the boy on the right temple, inflicting an ugly and dangerous injury. Several stitches were taken in the wound. Railroad torpedoes often get into the hands of boys and careless persons, who place them on street car tracks or attempt to explode them in other ways. Several persons, it will be remembered, were injured by these explosives on Henry street about a year ago.

Pleasant Entertainment.

The last social meeting of the Westminister League of the Second Presbyterian Church for this season was in the nature of a concert or musical in the First Presbyterian Church on south Fairfax street last night. The entertainment was under the direction of Miss Lucy Graves, who was assisted by St. Paul's Church choir, in concerted and solo work; by the Ideal Musical Club of this city, a Ladies' Quartette from Washington and a number of solosists from that city. A large number attended and the programme was well-rendered.

The New Ferry.

The committee on streets at a meeting yesterday afternoon concluded to report favorably to Council tonight an ordinance allowing the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company to move their freight house at the foot of King street 39 feet north of its present position and to fill in the dock. Mr. S. G. Brent, the attorney for the company and Mr. C. W. Wattles, the local agent, appeared before the committeeand explained the reasons for asking for the changes mentioned.

Enjoys the Gazette.

Mr. E. D. Ficklin, a former resident of this city, and at one time Superintendent of Schools of Fairfax county, writes as follows from Vinita, Ind., Territory, to his brother, Mr. Theodore H. Ficklin, Principal of Washington school: "I receive the Gazette regularly and you cannot imagine what a great pleasure it is to me, and how intently I peruse every line in it—even advertisements." Mr. Ficklin is at present City Treasurer of Vinita.

Strawberries.

The strawberry season is now at its height, and an abundance of this luscious fruit can now be seen in market and at stores. Fine specimens were selling in market this morning at 8 cents per box, or three boxes for 25 cents. But these prices will weaken before the close of the week. Strawberries from the South have been sold here for several weeks past; but they have been inferior to the home-grown crop which is now coming in.

Memorial Day.

Tomorrow will be Confederate Memorial Day and will, as has been the custom for many years past, be appropriately observed in this city. In the morning committees from Lee Camp will visit the cemeteries and strew flowers over the graves of the Confederate dead. Later the Confederate monument and mound will be decorated and in the evening memorial exercises will be held at the monument when Maj. Holmes Conrad will deliver an address. The programme has heretofore been published in the Gazette.

The attendance at Lee Camp Hall last night of those who will form the chorus at tomorrow's exercises was quite large. Those in attendance last night and others who were to assist in the singing are requested to meet at the stand at the monument at 5:30 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Lee Camp invites the Sons of Veterans and the citizens generally to join them in the parade and exercises. Capt. Thos. Perry, marshal, will have as his aides Messrs. George Stuart and Cooper Dawson.

Personal.

Mrs. J. Y. S. Mitchell was hostess at a pretty card party given at her home in Boush street Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. King, of Alexandria. Seven-hand euchre was played. Mrs. King and children, of Alexandria, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rowland, in Brown street, last week, and left Friday.—[Norfolk Landmark.

Dr. Alexander Murray, U. S. A., is on a visit to his family in this city.

Mrs. Herbert Oliver and Miss Lucy Douglas will give a tea at the Golf Club house on Friday afternoon, May 26, from 4 to 7 o'clock.

Miss Emma Clindist, of Edinburg, is the guest of Miss Nettie Rowen, on upper Prince street.

Prof. Ed. Dunn, the violinist, has returned to his home after a most successful tour of New York

Death of Mr. Miller.

Mr. Edgar Miller, who was born in Alexandria, June, 26, 1830, died at his home in St. Louis, Saturday of heart disease. Mr. Miller was reading a newspaper when stricken, and death occurred before the arrival of a physician. Mr. Miller went to St. Louis in 1851 and entered a banking establishment. At the outbreak of the civil war he entered the Confederate army, serving until its close, when he returned to St. Louis. He later became interested in the St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company, remaining with it until its dissolution. He then retired from business. He married Miss Mary Gamble, daughter of the late Governor Hamilton Gamble, in 1865. He is survived by Mrs. Miller and four children.

Street Improvements.

State Senator Machen has prepared a paper to be presented to the City Council looking to the petitioning of the legislature for an amendment to the State Constitution so as to allow cities to assess abutting property owners for street improvements. His idea is for the cities to pay one half for street improvements and the property owners along the streets improved to pay the other half—to be divided equally between the property on either side of the street. This is the plan under which Royal street is to be paved, but this work will be done by mutual agreement.

Mayor's Office.

It is understood that the committees on public property and finance have determined to fit up the ante-room of the Common Council chamber into an office for the Mayor, and that the plans recently formulated for certain alterations at the police station have been abandoned. It was at first proposed to locate the Mayor's office in the Fairfax street front of the City Hall building, but it has been deemed best to place it in the Royal street front in which section the other city offices are situated.

Double Crews.

A double crew is again operating the Baltimore and Ohio transfer service between this city and Shepherds. This has been rendered necessary by reason of the increased freight traffic of the present season. It is said that night and day crews will be continued throughout the summer.

Flowers for Memorial Day.

As has been stated in the Gazette, Lee Camp Hall will be open from 7 a. m., tomorrow (Confederate Memorial Day), for all to send flowers to help decorate the monument and graves of the Confederate dead.

Missing Man.

Al. Farmer, who had been living in the Braddock House, vanished last night and his whereabouts cannot be ascertained. He is of small stature, wore light trousers, a dark-striped coat and a light straw hat.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

City Council meets tonight.

Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, will meet tonight.

Some of the candidates for office seem to be a little charry about making the fact known to the people.

Martha Dudley, colored, aged 36 years, died at her home, 413 south Pitt street, yesterday afternoon.

At the meeting today of the stockholders of the Paff Shoe Company, the old officers were re-elected.

A boy was knocked down by a wagon at the corner of King and St. Asaph streets last night, but escaped serious injury.

A marriage licenses was issued in Washington, yesterday to Thomas C. Hall and Daisy E. Grubbs, of Front Royal, Va.

The cool weather which set in last week continues. The temperature rose yesterday, but fell again last night, and today a stiff northwest wind has prevailed.

The Relief and Reliance Fire Companies have received through Mr. Kenneth Ogden a check for $5, from Capt. Jos. E. Willard, as a contribution in connection with the minstrel entertainment given in this city last week.

Porter and ale on draught; also sold at 10 cents per quart. C. H. Zimmerman, Market alley. tu,th,sa Governor Montague spoke at Bedford City yesterday; Senator Martin, Judge Mann and Judge S. W. Williams made speeches at Houston, Halifax county, and Colonel Willard spoke at Tazewell.

"UNDER THE DAISIES."

Their forms lie slumb'ring 'neath the daisies
(Gold-fill'd stars that gem the sod);
The urn of mem'ry holds them fondly,
While their spirits walk with God,
Ah, we will e'er remember
Our comrades dear as they lie
Asleep "under the daisies,"
While the years are rolling by!

Tho' years are many since we parted
From the boys who wore the gray—
"Till mem'ry's lamp shall cease to burn" we'll
Gather here in blooming May,
With spring-blown tributes tender'd
For our laddies true and brave—
'Mid songs and tears we'll scatter
O'er their "cold and silent grave."

While show'ring bloom-drifts o'er our soldiers,
Hope (God's Heart'sease) quells all pain;
We'll meet again in Heav'n's fair future
Where death's angel keps no reign.
This star of Truth we cherish,
Knowing that on Eden's banks
We'll join in hallow'd union"
The lost comrades of our ranks.

* * * * * * * * *

Live for that union beyond the starshine;
Turn from your sorrow—God's promise is thine.
Bring radiant flowers to strew o'er the sod;
Live with a faith that can leave all with God:
Daisies all white-rimm'd with hearts of pure gold
Fall like the snowflakes o'er mosscover'd mold;
Watch o'er the dust: Ah how precious to you!
Keep for the living love's vigil so true.
Remember your dead each sunlit young May—
Yet, live for the living, O friends, today!

Stuart Appointed Collector.

The President decided yesterday afternoon to transfer J. E. B. Stuart from the office of United States Marshal for the Eastern district of Virginia to the office of collector of customs at Newport News. The former position pays $3,500 a year and the latter $3,000. Captain Stuart will fill the vacancy occasioned by the recent death of Collector Jesse W. Elliott.

Mr. Morgan Treat will be appointed by the President to the marshalship for the Eastern district of Virginia to succeed Captain Stuart. Mr. Treat was until last winter the marshal for the Eastern district of Virginia, but was succeeded by Captain Stuart through appointment by the President. Friends of Mr. Treat have been anxious to have him restored to the position and the agreement reached yesterday at the White House is in compliance with their wishes.

The change is with Stuart's knowledge and consent.

Representative Slemp, the republican leader in Virginia, and Judge Lewis called at the White House twice yesterday in connection with the change. When they called the second time they were accompanied by Captain Stuart and the following members of the Newport News citizen's committee: C. R. Williams (chairman), W. T. Hopkins, C. W. Bohlkens and George W. Fraley.

Mistaken for a Horse Thief.

While on his way to conduct the funeral service over the remains of a friend Rev. J. A. McClure, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Front Royal, was mistaken for a man who had stolen a horse and buggy from a livery stable. The mistake was made by persons in pursuit of the thief. Mr. McClure was arrested, and after being locked up in a store at Rio, W. Va., 50 miles from Winchester, succeeded in establishing his identity, and was released, but was too late to attend the funeral. Ignorant of the fact that he was being pursued as a horse thief all the way from Winchester to Rio, Mr. McClure drove peacefully along, and was surprised when he reached Rio to find a crowd of 300 people gathered to await his coming, headed by a constable, who informed the minister that he was under arrest. The minister was then locked up in the village store to await the arrival of the owner of the stolen property. The owner put in an appearance a few hours later, but, of course, was unable to identify the horse and buggy. Mr. McClure was thereupon released. In the meantime, however, another minister was secured for the funeral service, and the burial proceeded without Mr. McClure.

Russians Will Use Philippines?

A dispatch from Paris says that the United States naval contingent at the Philippines may yet have to deal with the wily Rojestvensky. It is reported that his coaling fleet is at one of the islands in Baltintang channel, probably Babuyamclaro, upon which there is a lighthouse. This island is north of Luzon. A Russian coaling fleet of 27 vessels and 3 other steamers, supposed to be carrying ammunition, with sailing orders from Hamburg, received instructions at Singapore as to their destination. The island will be merely a point of rendezvous, where the colliers will receive further instructions from Admiral Rojestvensky as to the particular harbor or bay where the fleets will coal. This probably will be some where on the coast of the Island of Luzon. The Americans have only a few ships at Manila, and nothing better than a firstclass cruiser. They are wholly inadequate for anything more than a demonstration in the event of coming up with the Russian fleet. From this information it would seem that Admiral Rojestvensky's intention is to continue his route to the southeast of Formosa, instead of passing through Formosa Strait.

Warning to Rockefeller.

Placards have appeared at different points on the big estate of William Rockefeller near Malone, N. Y., threatening him. Some of them read:

"A $50,000 bullet will stop William Rockefeller the minute he sets foot upon this property."

What the "$50,000 bullet" means is an enigma.

It was in this very neighborhood and only so short a time ago as February, 1903, that Orrando P. Dexter, a wealthy New York landholder, was shot and killed. Both men obtained great tracts of land, and to protect their game and fish preserves attempted to drive out the native woodsmen.

Orrander Dexter was killed after a long series of attempts to oust landholders who refused to sell and to prosecute the woodsmen who poached on his preserves. Rockefeller, it is said, has angered the people by taking an active interest in the search for the assassin of Dexter.

Explosion Kills Six Men.

Hocking Valley freight engine No. 41 blew up yesterday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock, at Columbus, Ohio, killing six men instantly and dangerously injuring a seventh. Spectators say that the body of one man was seen flying through the air 400 feet to the river, where it quickly sank out of sight. The engine had just been overhauled, and Boss Hostler Frederick A. Grumley had taken the engine out, with others on board, to coal at the coaling station, 150 feet north of the Hocking valley roundhouse. The trip was for the purpose of testing it. While standing near the coaling station the boiler burst with a report like a dozen cannon, people for many squares being startled by the explosion. Perhaps 200 men were working in the yards, at the roundhouse, and in nearby factories, and, as the report of the explosion was heard, many of them looked up to see the bodies of men, their arms and legs flying through the air at a height of 200 feet. The bodies alighted at a distance of more than 300 feet from the scene of the wreck. The entire interior of the engine was blown to Mound street, 200 feet distant, while parts of it weighing tons were found as far away as 300 yards. Officials of the road are at a loss to account for the explosion.

Dynamite Outrages.

The fruit store and home of Vinceno Palumbo, an Italian, in Monessen, Pa., were damaged yesterday by a charge of dynamite, said to have been exploded by members of the "Black Hand," Society. No one was injured. Recently Palumbo received a letter demanding $5,000 and threatening death if he failed to comply. The letter was ignored. Another was received, and treated in a like manner. The explosion yesterday followed. An investigation is being made by the police.

An attempt was made yesterday to blow up the home of Norman J. Dolph a real estate dealer of Kenton, Mich., with dynamite. The house was partly wrecked but the inmates escaped uninjured.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 23. 11 a. m.—Since the opening there has been general buying by the important commission houses, a great part of it being to cover stocks thrown over on the break yesterday afternoon. The big room traders generally took the bull side when the news about the Merchants' Trust Company was published and bid for large blocks causing other traders to cover shorts and helping force prices up. The strength of the Northern Securities group materially helped the upward movement.

Noon—The stock market under buying for both accounts is now making the highest prices of the day. There is a nervous large short interest in Amalgamated Copper. The buying of Union Pacific and the standard railway issues is the feature of the market and recoveries are still in progress.

Auditor of Public Accounts Morton Marye has appointed Mr. W. R. Parr, of Amherst county, a clerk in the Auditor's office of the State of Virginia to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. R. T. McLeod.

President Roosevelt has decided to appoint Dominic I. Murphy, of Washington, to the Consulship at Bordeaux, to succeed Judge Albion W. Tourgee, the noted author, who died at his post Sunday.

A Good Suggestion.

Mrs. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufactures that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drank. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

AUCTION SALES.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, rendered on the 7th day of November, 1904, in the chancery cause of Solomon Myers and Isodore Myers, executors of Lewis Myers, deceased, vs. Max Lansburgh and others, the undersigned special commissioners of sale, will on the 5th day of June, 1905,

at 12 o'clock m., at the front door of the Court House of Prince William county, Manassas, Va., sell at public auction all the right, title, interest and estate of the defendant, Max Lansburgh, in and to ALL THAT TRACT OF LAND situated in the county of Prince William, State of Virginia, described as containing 4,264 acres, more or less, and bounded on the east by the Potomac river, on the north by Quantico creek, on the south by Chappawamsick creek and on the west by the telegraph road, together with all rights and appurtences thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining; or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of the said decree in favor of the plaintiffs against the said Max Lansburgh, to-wit, the sum of $2,741.77, with interest on $2,473 66, part thereof from March 6, 1900, and on $268.11, the residue thereof from October 4, 1901, until paid, and the costs of this suit and of sale. The sale is made subject to the rights of W. A. Wimsatt under the agreements made with him by the defendant, Max Lansburgh, bearing date February 9 1904, and March 4, 1904, respectively, and the deed made in pursuance thereof, recorded among the land records of Prince William county, in Liber 52, page 323, and subject also to the contigent dower right of the wife of the said Max Lansburgh in the equity of redemption in said property.

Terms of Sale—One-third of the purchase money in cash on the day of sale and the residue in two equal installments at six and twelve months from the day of sale, the deferred installments to bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the day of sale until paid, and to be evidenced by the notes or bonds of the purchaser or purchasers with approved personal security and the title to be retained until the full payment of the purchase money. The purchaser or purchasers may at their option pay all in cash. All conveyancing to be at the cost of the purchaser or purchasers.

JAMES R. CATON,
J. B. T. THORNTON,
Commissioners of Sale.

I, John S. Beach, Clerk of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, do certify that James R. Caton has executed bond with approved surety as required by the above decree.

The Sea Lion.

Very little of the sea lion is wasted by the natives of the icy north. After being cleaned the intestines are distended with air and allowed to dry in that shape. Then they are cut into ribbons and sewed strongly with sinews taken from the back of the animal into that most characteristic garment of Alaska, the "kainlaika," which, while being fully as waterproof as india rubber, has far greater strength and is never affected by grease and oil. It is also transparent in its fitting over dark clothes. The throats are served in a similar manner and when cured are made into boot tops, which are in turn soled with the tough skin that composes the palms of this animal's fore flippers. The stomach walls, which look like overgrown gourds or enormous calabashes, with attenuated necks, are used as oil pouches, while the tough, elastic mustache bristles are objects of great commercial activity by the Chinese, who prize them highly as pickers for their opium pipes and several ceremonies peculiar to their joss houses.

The Crafty Jack Rabbit.

When the settler on the western prairie sees a jack rabbit for the first time he has an idea that he can just skip out and lay hands on the creature without any trouble, but that is where the man gets fooled. The rabbit is awkward, appears to be lame in every joint, holds up one foot as though it pained him and altogether creates the belief that he is a dilapidated wreck of an ungainly, animate thing. The settler is surprised that he cannot "grab" him. The settler's dog also is confident that he can quickly make an end of the rabbit. He bristles, runs leisurely toward the rabbit, doubles his speed, doubles it again, tripies that, quadruples the whole, when, lo, the rabbit disappears. There is some flying grass, a vanishing streak of light, a twinkling of two prodded feet extended rearward, and he is gone. The dog sits on his haunches and concludes that he did not see a rabbit at all.

Great Men of Lowly Birth.

Most of the great men of history were of lowly birth. Lord Wolsey was the son of a butcher, Columbus the son of a weaver, Horace the son of a manufacturer, Sir Richard Arkwright the son of a barber, Shakespeare the son of a wool stapler, Watt the son of a blockmaker, Virgil the son of a porter, Stephenson the son of a fireman at a colliery, Burns the son of a plowman, Franklin the son of a tallow chandler, Oliver Cromwell the son of a brewer; Æsop was a slave; Beaconsfield was a lawyer's clerk, Thomas Paine a staymaker, De Foe a hosier, son of a butcher; Demosthenes was the son of a cutler, Ben Jonson a bricklayer, Bunyan a traveling tinker, Dickens a reporter; Edmund Kean was the son of a stage carpenter; Cervantes was a common soldier; Homer was a farmer's son and is said to have begged his bread. The list might be extended through columns.

Hair Growth.

It is a curious fact that a boy's hair grows one-half slower than a girl's. In boys the average rate of growth is three feet three inches in six years, being an average of .018 inch a day. During the twenty-first and twenty-fourth years a man's hair grows quicker than at any other period. It takes an eyelash twenty weeks to reach a length of .429 inch, and then its life is from 100 to 150 days. By means of a camera the wink of an eyelid has been measured, and it was found that twenty winks can be made in four seconds.

The Top of the Ladder.

There is plenty of opportunity for superior talents. The top of the ladder of success offers plenty of standing room and invites guests. The lower part only is fearfully crowded. There is no excuse for the universal wail of lack of opportunity, for there is no lack. The trouble lies with the demands laid upon those who aspire to first place. One thing is certain, there is no quarter for the whiner and precious little encouragement for those who do not care to work with might and main.—Chicago Journal.

An Oversight of Nature.

It is desirable to exclude light and sound, but, while we have eyelids, no apparatus for closing the ears is known, save, I believe, in certain animals which inhabit the sea and whose ears are of small auditory importance. In these days, when noises of all kinds, more or less nerve wrecking, assail the ears by night as well as by day, one may be pardoned if he sighs wearily for ear lids.—London Academy.

A Willing Worker.

"Ma, what are the folks in our church gettin' up a subscription for?"

"To send our minister on a vacation to Europe."

"An' won't there be no church while he's gone?"

"No preachin' services, I guess."

"Ma, I got $1.23 saved up in my bank. Can I give that?"—Cleveland Leader.

Ants' Gardens.

Brazilian ants make little gardens in the tree tops and sow them with pineapple and other seeds. The gardens are found of all sizes, from a single sprouting seed, surrounded by a little earth, to a densely overgrown ball as large as a man's head.

Genius and Eccentricity.

"You can't have genius without eccentricity."

"That may be so, but I've noticed that it's possible to have a good deal of eccentricity without much genius."—Chicago Record-Herald.

When you notice a vague accusation you give it a reality and turn a shadow into substance.—Bulwer.

His Precaution.

Nervous Old Lady (on seventh floor of hotel)—Do you know what precautions the proprietor of the hotel has taken against fire? Porter—Yes, mum; he has the place insured for twice what it's worth.

A man's good nature can be accurately gauged from the distance his children run to meet him when he comes home.

Curious Land, Curious People.

Near Cape Horn, in the island of Tierra del Fuego, live the most curious people in all South America. It rains or snows or sleets nearly every day, and yet they look on their country as the finest in the world. They wear hardly any clothing and seem not to feel cold. Because he saw fires on the shore the explorer Magellan, the first European that rounded the Horn, called the island "the Land of Fire," which is almost the worst name he could have chosen. Their huts are made of bent boughs and covered with grass and give only the poorest shelter. The folk are vain, too, wearing necklaces of the teeth of fishes or seals and painting patterns on their bodies. Among them some colors have a novel meaning. White is the sign of war and red of peace. They are great mimics and will imitate voice and gesture perfectly.

Bamboo Fascination.

The secret of the charm of bamboos is so subtle and elusive as to defy analysis. Bamboos are really grasses on a large scale—a tropical scale—yet they do not impress us as being coarse—in fact, they are slenderness personified—and they seem to fit well into a northern landscape. Their decorative character is so clearly recognized that they are often grown in large pots or tubs for porch and greenhouse decoration—even the hardy species. Bamboos are generally thought to look best on the bank of a stream or among rocks on a hillside, but they are also becoming favorites for the hardy border, and they are often used most effectively in cities at the base of public buildings—for example, at the national capitol.—Country Life In America.

Preserved In Water.

Water is a wonderful preservative of the human body. There exists an entry in the parish register of St. Andrew's, Newcastle, England, bearing upon the point: "April 24, 1695, wear buried James Archer and his son Stephen, who in the moneth of May, 1658, wear drowned in a coal pit in the Gallafat by the breaking in of water from an old waste. The bodys were found intire after they had lien in the water thirty-six years and eleven months."

A Clew to Happiness.

If it be my lot to crawl, I will crawl contentedly; if to fly, I will fly with alacrity, but as long as I can possibly avoid it I will never be unhappy. If with a pleasant wife, three children and many friends who wish me well I cannot be happy I am a very silly, foolish fellow, and what becomes of me is of very little consequence.—From a Letter by Sydney Smith.

Man's Reasonableness

is often as great as women's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, price 50c.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following recently appeared in the Aitcheson (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well-known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There Is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrup is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nerve tissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.
